

Standard Deduction Schedule

Issued 21 November 2025 • effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2026

This bulletin states the basic standard deduction amounts and the additional amounts allowed to taxpayers who have attained age 65 before the close of the taxable year or who are blind. All amounts in this bulletin are expressed in United States dollars.

Section 1 — Basic standard deduction

Filing status	Amount	Prior year	Change
Single	15,400	15,000	+400
Married filing jointly	30,800	30,000	+800
Married filing separately	15,400	15,000	+400
Head of household	23,100	22,500	+600
Qualifying surviving spouse	30,800	30,000	+800

Section 2 — Additional standard deduction (age 65 or older, or blind)

Condition	Per qualifying condition (a)
Unmarried (single or head of household)	2,050
Married, per qualifying spouse	1,650

Section 3 — Dependents

The standard deduction allowed to an individual with respect to whom a deduction for a personal exemption is allowable to another taxpayer is limited to the greater of 1,400, or the individual's earned income for the taxable year plus 450. In no event may the amount so determined exceed the basic standard deduction otherwise applicable to the individual's filing status under Section 1 above. (b)

(a) The additional amount is allowed once for age and once for blindness; a taxpayer meeting both conditions is allowed twice the stated amount.

(b) Amounts in Section 3 are indexed and are restated each year in the annual inflation adjustment bulletin.
